

Monday, August 01, 2005

SEARCH

ADVERTISEMENT

feature

Email this page
to a friendSheryl Lee's Weekend Wedding!

August 1, 2005

RELATED VIDEO:

Watch Video 1 Watch Video 2

Here comes the bride! ET has been with actress SHERYL LEE RALPH every step of the way as she planned the fairytale wedding of the summer to Pennsylvania State Senator VINCENT HUGHES.

The lavish ceremony happened over the weekend in Los Angeles, and from the flowers and the dress to the walk down the aisle, the kiss and the all-night party, ET was there to capture every lasting memory!

We were even at Sheryl Lee's luxurious bridal shower where the bridesmaids learned a new skill: exotic dancing!

"What happens here at the shower stays at the shower!" proclaims Sheryl Lee with a huge smile.

The former "Moesha" star and her best girlfriends learned "The Art of Exotic Dancing for Everyday Women."

(www.artofexoticdancing.com) Developed by co-creator LEAH STAUFFER, the sexy exercise routines are a way to tone your sex appeal and body at the same time; to get women in touch with, and proud of, their bodies. Stauffer originally started teaching classes in Pennsylvania, but soon gained a huge following and expanded to New York City workshops, a book, video and even a DVD set.

"I love it!" says Sheryl Lee. "We women are of the future; we don't hire strippers. We learn to strip ourselves. Whoop!"

All we can say is that Sheryl Lee's husband-to-be is going to be one lucky man.

Watch ET for all the highlights of this dream wedding.

And for even more wedding details, visit www.sheryleeandvincent.com.

Email this page to a friend

© 2005 Stephen Shugerman / Getty Images

Actress Sheryl Lee Ralph got married this weekend!

WATCH VIDEO

ET was at the rehearsal!

WATCH VIDEO

Sheryl Lee and her friends demonstrate their racy dance moves!

Courtesy Entertainment Tonight

"I love it," says Sheryl Lee of the art of exotic dancing.